1. Introduction

2SC Security Ltd ("we", "our", or "us") is committed to protecting the privacy and personal data of our clients, website visitors, business partners, and employees. We process personal data responsibly, securely, and in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018, and other applicable data protection legislation.

This policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect personal information obtained through our website and during the course of our business activities.

2. Who We Are

2SC Security Ltd

Registered Office: 19 Biggar Village, Walney Island, LA143YG

Email: craig.lowden@2sc-security.com

Website: www.2sc-security.com

If you have any questions regarding this policy or how we process your personal data, please contact us using the details above.

3. Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following categories of personal data:

- Name
- Company name
- Job title
- Email address
- Telephone number
- Postal address
- Information submitted through our contact forms
- Details relating to enquiries or consultancy services
- Website usage data collected through cookies and analytics tools
- Any other information you choose to provide

We only collect information that is necessary for legitimate business purposes.

4. How We Use Your Information

We use personal information to:

- Respond to enquiries.
- Provide consultancy services.
- Prepare proposals and quotations.
- Communicate with clients.
- Manage contracts and projects.
- Improve our website and services.
- Meet legal and regulatory obligations.
- Protect our business from fraud or misuse.

We will only process your personal data where we have a lawful basis for doing so.

5. Lawful Basis for Processing

Depending on the circumstances, we process personal data under one or more of the following lawful bases:

- Consent
 - Performance of a contract
 - Compliance with legal obligations
 - Legitimate business interests

6. Data Sharing

We do not sell personal data.

We may share information with trusted third-party service providers where necessary to support our business operations, including:

- IT service providers
- Website hosting providers
- Cloud storage providers
- Professional advisers
- Legal or regulatory authorities where required by law

All third parties are required to process personal information securely and in accordance with applicable data protection legislation.

7. Data Security

2SC Security Ltd implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, loss, or destruction.

These measures include secure password management, encrypted systems where appropriate, restricted access to information, and regular review of our security practices.

8. Data Retention

Personal information will only be retained for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, to comply with legal obligations, or to resolve disputes.

When personal data is no longer required, it will be securely deleted or anonymised.

9. Newsletter and Direct Marketing

Where you choose to subscribe to 2SC Security's free content, we will collect and process your email address for the purpose of delivering the briefing and related communications that you have requested.

Subscription is voluntary and requires a clear affirmative action. We will not add individuals to the mailing list without an appropriate basis for doing so.

The briefing may contain security, geopolitical, intelligence and risk-related analysis, as well as information about 2SC Security's services where relevant.

We use a third-party email distribution platform to manage subscriptions and deliver communications. Appropriate contractual and data protection arrangements will be maintained with any third-party provider used to process subscriber information.

Subscribers may unsubscribe from the briefing at any time using the unsubscribe facility provided within each communication or by contacting 2SC Security directly.

Where consent is relied upon, 2SC Security will maintain appropriate records of consent, including when and how consent was provided. We will respect requests to withdraw consent and will cease sending marketing communications following withdrawal, subject to any limited information that we may be required to retain for legal or compliance purposes.

We will not sell, rent or otherwise provide subscriber email addresses to third parties for their own marketing purposes.

10. Your Rights

Under UK data protection legislation, you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data.
- Request correction of inaccurate information.
- Request deletion of your personal data where appropriate.
- Request restriction of processing.
- Object to certain types of processing.
- Request transfer of your personal data where applicable.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.

Requests should be submitted using the contact details provided in this policy.

11. Cookies

Our website may use cookies to improve functionality, analyse website performance, and enhance user experience.

Where required, visitors will be asked for consent before non-essential cookies are placed on their devices.

Further information is available in our Cookie Policy.

12. International Transfers

Where personal information is transferred outside the United Kingdom, appropriate safeguards will be implemented to ensure that your data receives an equivalent level of protection.

13. Data Breaches

Any suspected personal data breach will be investigated promptly. Where required by law, breaches will be reported to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) and affected individuals within the prescribed timescales.

14. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Data Protection Policy from time to time to reflect changes in legislation, business practices, or operational requirements. The latest version will always be available on our website.
